CIRCUIT COURT.
Cunningham Murder Case Now Being Tried—Jury Fail to Agree in Norman Benham Case.

The case of James Cunningham, under indictment for murder in the first degree, for the killing of John Shearlock, was called for trial last Monday. Motion to quash indictment filed and overruled; plea of not guilty and panel of 12 jurors ordered for Wednesday, when panel was selected, and trial begins this (Friday) morning.

Norman Benham was tried Wednesday on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Jury failed to agree, were discharged, and cause passed for further orders.

Henry Key pleaded guilty to assault with intent to kill his wife, assessed at $100.

Case of Galetti, murder in first degree, continued to December 11th.

Thanksgiving Services.
In compliance with the proclamation of the President, and of the Governor of the State of Missouri, a union Thanksgiving service will be held in the Presbyterian church on Thursday, November 30th, at 10:30 a. m. Elder Edward Owens, pastor of the Christian church, will preach the sermon.

The Ministers' Alliance would suggest to the merchants, that if possible they so arrange their business as to close their stores at 10 o'clock on that day, that they and their assistants can attend this service.

"A Royal Slave."
This play will be presented at the Opera House in Farmington Thursday evening, November 23d. It is said to be an innovation in the way of romantic drama, as it is a distinct novelty, both as to theme and scenic embellishments. The plot of the play is taken from Gen. Lew Wallace's great story "The Fair God," which is sufficient guarantee of its literary merit. The many beautiful scenes have been painted from photographs taken in Mexico especially for this production, and are said to be magnificent examples of the scene painter's art.

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE NOTES.
Prof. Mouthart spent Thursday and Friday of this week in Poplar Bluff, inspecting the work of his school there.

The banking department is now in charge of Warner Jackson, while the interests of the wholesale offices are being looked after by Miss Amanda O'Sullivan.

Owing to the increasing attendance and accumulation of school work, President Mouthart has just closed a contract for an assistant in the business department.

Present enrollment 58, the following having enrolled since our last report: Thomas Simmons and Nellie Carter of Farmington and Harry Thomsen of Ste. Genevieve.

B. Y. P. U.
Subject, November 19:—"The Healing Christ."—Mark 1:29-34.
There never will come a time on the earth as it now is when it will not be necessary to hold up Jesus Christ as the Great Healer. As long as man is afflicted by sin, just so long will the results of sin be manifested.

In the Scripture selection for this topic we have Jesus performing an act of healing in the fever case of Peter's mother-in-law; and this act was so phenomenal that the news of it reached a great company of sick and diseased people, and they immediately sought the Master, hoping that He would work a miracle in their behalf. And the poor, suffering people were not disappointed, for He healed them.

In considering this topic it will be well to emphasize some things. Christ came to the earth in order to establish His kingdom in the hearts of men. In order to secure the confidence of the people it was necessary to give manifestations of power far removed from the natural. Besides inspiring an awe for the Master, it was essential that the heart of man should be constrained to love Him. This was brought about by His miracles of help in behalf of suffering humanity.

The young people are cordially invited to attend the B. Y. P. U. services Sunday evenings at 8:30 o'clock at the Baptist church.
